Sub: Resignation Acceptance Letter

Dear Satyam Saha,

This letter is to acknowledge your resignation dated 7/24/2026.

We, Chubb Business Services India Private Limited, hereby accept your resignation, and you will be relieved from the services of the company at close of business hours on 9/23/2026. All amounts that are payable to you from the Company shall be paid to your bank account, subject to applicable taxes.

You expressly acknowledge and agree that the F&F Amount will constitute full and final settlement of all statutory and contractual claims against the Company and/or any of its group companies and/or any of its/their clients, officers, or employees, in relation to your employment with the Company and its cessation, including but not limited to any claim for compensation for unfair dismissal in accordance with applicable law. By virtue of cessation of your employment, the Company, and/or any of its group companies and all of its/their officers or employees and all of its /their clients and customers, are released from all other claims (whether contractual, statutory or otherwise and whether present or contingent) that you have or may have arising out of or in connection with your employment or its cessation.

Relieving letter will be issued after all dues have been cleared.
